

LEWINNICK
LODGE

THE PLUME
OF FEATHERS

Job description – Breakfast Chef

Iconic bar and restaurant with boutique rooms on the North Cornwall Coast seeks experienced Breakfast Chef to join our growing team. We challenge you not to fall in love with our location, team and ethos!

Here at Lewinnick Lodge, we pride ourselves on being different, independent and progressive. Unique locations, exceptional food, brilliant stays and exceptional customer experiences are what we deliver every day; we are looking for the right person to continue this journey with us.

As the Breakfast Chef, you'll be working with amazing produce from some of the best suppliers in the country; and alongside talented and happy chefs.

We're looking for an early bird; a positive and energetic personality to join our kitchen team. You'll ideally have experience in a busy, high-profile restaurant, a natural flair for first-class service and a huge passion for hospitality and people.

If you've got limited experience but the right attitude to deliver great service, we also want to hear from you.

Our Company:

We are committed to providing our team members with an enjoyable place of work and pride ourselves with the investments and dedication to our individual employees, watching them learn and develop their skills and confidence. We have opportunities to provide internal promotions, hospitality and catering courses in our partnership with Truro & Penwith College.

Looking out for our team:

We are committed to providing 'Personal Perks' that financially support and increase the wellbeing of our individual employees. Helping to provide a valued, healthy and happy work-life balance. We work with Hospitality Action, to give each employee additional confidential support 24/7. From the first day of joining our team, you are able to enjoy the following Personal Perks:

- Employee Assistance Programme with Hospitality Action.
- A Competitive Salary
- Seasonal bonus schemes
- Employee referral schemes
- Regular salary reviews
- Career progression
- Training opportunities
- Complimentary parking
- Hotel accommodation discounts at both Lewinnick Lodge & The Plume of Feathers
- Discounts at both Lewinnick Lodge & The Plume of Feathers

Hours of Work: Full-Time, including evenings and weekends.

*Please note, we can only consider applications for those eligible to work in the UK or that hold a valid UK work permit/visa for this vacancy.

Salary: From £11.75 per hour
