

BOUTIQUE HOTEL, RESTAURANT & BAR

Organically grown from humble beginnings

Originally built to house the staff of the nearby manor house (which was accidently built on the wrong side of the headland when the owner was overseas and so became known as Baker's folly). Lewinnick Lodge has been used as a fisherman's store and even a smuggler's den over the years.

It wasn't until 1990 that it was bought by the current owners, who initially opened Lewinnick Lodge as a tea room gradually turning it into the beautiful boutique hotel, restaurant & bar it is today.
